

OLIDATA AT FINTECH AWARDS ITALIA 2026: EXPERTISE AND FINANCIAL STRENGTH DRIVING INNOVATION

Milan, October 8, 2026 – Olidata is participating today in the FinTech Awards Italia | Oscar del FinTech, held at Palazzo Mezzanotte in Milan, as a Technical Partner. This participation reinforces the Group's position within the Italian technology landscape and comes at a time of growth, industrial strength, and expanding development opportunities.

In the first half of 2026, the Olidata Group reported revenues of €46.2 million, up 38.6%, adjusted EBITDA of €2.769 million, with an EBITDA margin of 6%, and net profit of €571,000. These results highlight the capabilities of a well-established Group that successfully combines financial performance, proprietary technologies, and operational expertise.

Olidata continues to strengthen its market position as a technology holding company and System Integrator, serving as a strategic partner supporting major corporations and institutions throughout their digital transformation journeys. Leveraging specialized expertise and proprietary technologies, the Group's offering integrates cybersecurity, artificial intelligence, Big Data, cloud computing, IoT, and GIS, safeguarding sensitive data and enhancing the resilience of IT infrastructures.

This strong position in the Italian market is driving a significant international expansion. With the establishment of its subsidiary Olidata Middle East in Abu Dhabi, the company is bringing its technological expertise and project delivery capabilities to a market with a strong focus on advanced technologies.

With the same forward-looking approach, the Group is taking part in the FinTech Awards Italia, a unique opportunity for dialogue, collaboration, and the development of synergies within a sector where financial and digital innovation are becoming increasingly interconnected.

"Today, Olidata has the scale, expertise, and credibility to engage with leading markets and key industry stakeholders. Participating in the FinTech Awards means bringing tangible technological capabilities to this environment, built on proven results, specialization, and a clear industrial vision," said Luca Tognana, Institutional Relations at Olidata S.p.A.
